The 7 to 5 victory of the Giants over Cincinnati yesterday afternoon at the YANKEES SET FOR the fact that Prof. John McGraw is usually able to select the psychological moment for an exhibition of presence of mind. It was in the eighth inning that the manager of the Giants was im-pressed with the necessity of taking ection to dispel the shadows of portending events. The shadows were cast by Rough, who were roosting on three cor-rers of the diamond, while Kopf was at the plate eager to bring them home. One man was out, and Neale and Groh had walked, while Roush had been hit in the lumbago department with a pitched ball. These events caused Mc-Graw to order an instant shower bath Red Causey, who had pitched like

O THE SUNDAY MOURNERS LEAGUE, THE KILLJOYS ASSO-CIATION AND THE FLATCHESTED COUNCIL:

Having noted that you had started a movement for a return to the old fashloned Sunday and that you very righteously deplored the growing tendency to legalize baseball, fishing and other fresh air activities on the Sabbath, we determined to transmit to you a vote of undiluted confidence. King Lear-baseball fans must be cen students of Shakespeare, for they We had heard a great deal of the Sunday baseball evil, which like a leach call the young Villa Nova star on the has fastened itself on our fair city and is driving our citizens straight to Cubs, "King," just as have been called the demnition bowwows. In order to get first hand information regarding this latest agency of Satan we went to the ball game last Sunday at the place called the Polo Grounds. What a sad spectacle we envisaged there! all the other Lears in sports-committed assault and battery on Rube Marquard Place called the Polo Grounds. The Phillies look it out on the Cardinals yesterday for a slight suffered at the hands of the Dodgers recently. When the Phillies were at Ebbets Field on May 5 they got away to a seven run lead on the Dodgers, only to have Brooklys store six runs in the fifth and later win out. With the Cardinals leading, I to I in the night inning yesterday the Clan Coomba clouded up and rained six runs across the platter, winning the gam. S to 7.

Mitchell will use either Lefty Tyler or Claude Hendrix against the Dodgers to day. Both are mighty effective against He Hendrix against the Dodgers to Hendrix Tyler or day. Both are mighty effective against Hendrix No. 1 J. Metcaif Brooklyn. Tyler has one one bit game and one two hit games to his credit against the Dodgers. Father of Sunday Baseball to Be Tendered Dinner Saturday. Arrangements were completed yesterday for the dinner to be tendered to Magistrate McQuade at the Commodor Hotel on Saturday night. Gov. Smith will be present and Justice Victor Dowling will preside. The dinner will be a testimonial to Mr. McQuade, primarily in recognition of the work he ac-complished in the movement that finally resulted in the passage of the Sunday baseball law.

Col. Huston, Col. Ruppert, Charles Stoneham, Charley Ebbets, the Mc-Keevers, John Foster, Police Commissioner Enright and the leading baseball players will be present. It looks like a big night for the magistrate and baseball in general.

RICKARD'S PLAN IS UPSET BY LONSDALE

Promoter Wanted Earl and Major Biddle to Act as Judges.

The refusal of Lord Lonsdale, president of the National Sporting Club of London, to act as a judge at the bout between Willard and Dempsey at Tobetween Willard and Dempsey at To-ledo, July 4, has temporarily upset a pretentious plan in connection with the championship contest. At the sucges-tion of the Army, Navy and Civilian Board of Boxnig Control. Rickard sent invitations to Lord Lonsdale and Major J. Drexel Biddle of Philadelphia to act as judges the intention being as judges, the intention being to have them sit on opposite sides of the ring, the same as judges in an amateur bout. The referee as selected by Dempsey and Willard would have gone into the ring, but in the event of a decision on points being necessary the referre would have seen called upon to act only in case the judges disagreed.

It is not improbable that some other prominent man may be induced to take the palce declined by Lord Longdale and act in conjunction with Major Biddle. In a cablegram announcing his inabil-ity to accept the proffered position Earl Lonsdale said that numerous engage-ments precluded his leaving England at present. He said he regarded the invitation as a "charming sample of mutual friendship and understanding between the two countries."
